"What's the matter? What is it?" asked Mrs. Graham, uneasily.

"In just five minutes now, perhaps less, you will be dead," said the nurse, quite calmly.

Begin to-day to read Futrelle's latest mystery story. On Saturday you will have a chance to guess how it ends in the SUNDAY AMERICAN and perhaps win a prize.

GET CLUE TO SUSPECTED KIDNAPPER

PART I.

The maiden police, who are searching for pretty little Louella Sullivan, who was kidnapped on February 14 while she lay sleeping in the arms of her mother, George M. Sullivan, to school in Malden, have received a clue which they hope will lead to the arrest of Mrs. Bertha Fennick and the speedy recovery of little Louella and her sister Mabel, who was kidnapped in Boston some years ago.

Since the maiden police scattered broad cast circulars containing pictures of Mrs. Fennick and the children it has been learned that Mrs. Fennick has been seen in Philadelphia. The police of that city have been notified and requested to find the woman before she escapes across the water. Mrs. Fennick is the aunt of the child who was taken from the arms of her mother, and it is still in the hands of the police to determine if she is the same woman who was seen in Philadelphia. The child was seen in the arms of her mother, and it is still in the hands of the police to determine if she is the same woman who was seen in Philadelphia.

ALDERMAN'S AMAZING DEAL TO GRAND JURY

WHILE DRAPER HAS COMMITTEES READY, MORAN IS MARSHALLING EVIDENCE.

While Chairman Charles M. Draper of the Board of Aldermen, who was chosen for the position after an amazing deal was secured by the Mayor and carried out in his office—the details of which were told yesterday in the BOSTON AMERICAN—yesterday was ready to answer the summons of the important committee for the year at today's meeting of the board, District Attorney John D. Moran was preparing to lay the real facts of the case before the Grand Jury, in session today.

It is believed that the District Attorney will lay out the case of the two children who were kidnapped from their mother, Mrs. Bertha Fennick, and from others he has seen in the hands of the police. The Mayor told the committee that he would be prepared to make a deal with the Aldermen, but he refused to enter into any contract. The proposition was made to the Mayor to let the deal be made by the Aldermen, but he refused to enter into any contract.

District Attorney's Office Willing to Agree to Manslaughter in Second Degree for Bertha Claiche, Who Slew Man That Abused Her, but Defence Will Fight to the End.

NEW YORK, March 5.—The trial of Bertha Claiche for the murder of Emile Gerdron was adjourned early to-day upon the announcement that the pretty French girl had agreed to plead guilty to manslaughter in the second degree.

Immediately after the adjournment the lawyers for the prisoner and Assistant District Attorney Ely had a long consultation, and at 12:30 the girl's lawyers declared that they would fight to the end and that the Claiche girl would not enter a plea of guilty to any charge whatsoever.

WILL FIGHT TO THE END.

Abraham Levy and ex-Judge Rosalby, counsel for the Claiche girl, refused today to let her enter a plea of guilty of any crime whatever. Mr. Levy said:

"I am fighting to free Bertha unconditionally and not to aid in the prosecution of the police. The girl will go out on a plea of guilty. The trial will go on to the end and she will have a full and fair trial."

PRISONER WAS NERVOUS.

The prisoner, when she was brought into court seemed very much agitated after a long interview with her lawyer ex-Judge Rosalby. Almost immediately after she had taken her seat Assistant District Attorney Ely asked that the case be postponed till 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Bertha Claiche opened her eyes and looked bright as in her simple Paris home upon a new world, a world full of interest and promise.

For a whole year people had been talking of the girl, and she was now before them. Bertha Claiche had been a girl, and she was now a woman. She had been a girl, and she was now a woman. She had been a girl, and she was now a woman.

SKILLED WITH NEEDLE.

Bertha proved a masterpiece of unusual skill. She had been a girl, and she was now a woman. She had been a girl, and she was now a woman. She had been a girl, and she was now a woman.

600 STOKERS CLOSE 65 CARRIAGE STOPS

OVERTIME AND SATURDAY HALF HOLIDAYS CAUSE CLASH WITH EMPLOYERS.

All of the sixty-five carriage and wagon stops of the city are closed to-day because of a general strike of the 600 employees. An endeavor is being made to secure a conference with the employers.

The question at issue is overtime and Saturday half holidays through the Boston street car system.

The strikers are representing at the headquarters of the Carriage and Wagon Workers Union in Hall's hall.

Should a mass meeting will be held at the Boston house to discuss the strike, should decide on what course the strikers

HATTERED BY STORMS, STEAMERS MAKE PORT

Whirled about the sea as though she were a bit of Boston, her coal gone and her deck fittings smashed and battered, the British tramp steamer Lothian came up the harbor and anchored off the East Boston flats to-day, after the most tempestuous voyage in the history of her commander, Captain David Lloyd. The Lothian has been driven ashore by a combination of forces.

The Lothian was on its way to Boston from Liverpool, with 10,000 lbs. of coal on board. The ship was driven ashore by a combination of forces.
